

THE WHISPER OF DREAMS

by
Ben Hennessy

Hundreds are dead at the hands of The Four.

Three months after the events of Leithar Grove, Tamir is a kingdom in fear. The people no longer trust Prince Remelas; the Sons of Tamir, a nationalistic faction created within this atmosphere of betrayal, march on the capital to seek his abdication.

And still the rumours persist of a young girl who walked away, unharmed, from Leithar Grove that night. Crazed seers and prophets continue to preach of the Queen of the World. Sarene, accompanied by the woodsman Kanderil, journeys ever onwards in hope of finding shelter from the coming winter.

Sarene refuses to believe what these nameless strangers say about her. Yet she must come face to face with the truth of what she is. What she represents. And that truth will come at the highest cost.
