FRACTURE

by
Hugo Jackson

“The shadows are coming.”

Months after the tremors that shook the world, repercussions of battle still lie in Xayall’s broken streets. Among the debris stands Bayer, former bodyguard to Faria, Empress of the city state. His position redundant, and his injuries still healing, he struggles to find new purpose.

Unrest between nations is already stirring. A Councillor from Andarn has been murdered, and only a handful realise that sinister machinations are blackening the root of the whole continent.

Questioning his duties, Bayer finds himself escorting Captain Alaris on a mission from which neither may return, although their failure may spark a brutal and catastrophic war.

As blades rise, threats both new and old emerge from the darkness and bare their teeth at the world...

PRAISE

“An epic anthro fantasy continues in this dark and dour tale. Rancorous politics, mystifying intrigue, bloody battles, heart-pounding danger—and that’s just the book’s first half!”

- Mark J. Engels, author of Always Gray in Winter
